

August 2016

SUBJECT: Contracts Engineering Ltd. MD featured in EEF's "Manufacturing on the Hop" Podcast

In the Brexit special edition of 'Manufacturing on the hop' EEF Chief Economist Lee Hopley focuses on what the vote to Brexit means for UK manufacturing.

Looking at the results of our recent EU referendum survey, Lee explains how, so far, there hasn't yet been an impact on the manufacturing sector, apart from a confidence hit. Podcast guest Troy Barratt, MD of Contracts Engineering Ltd, gave his views (2:15 INTO THE PODCAST)

<https://www.eef.org.uk/about-eef/media-news-and-insights/blogs/2016/aug/listen-to-manufacturing-on-the-hop-brexit-special>

*****

Contracts Engineering Ltd is an ISO 9001:2008 fully integrated precision sheet metal and extrusion manufacturer based in Sittingbourne, Kent, UK. We operate a 16 hour working day out of two dedicated facilities totalling 12,500 sq ft. We employ approximately 30 highly skilled employees. CEL has provided high quality, cost effective precision sub contract manufacturing services to our customers since 1989. We cut, form, weld and finish (including powder coating) sheet metal and related products for a broad mix of customers in various industrial end markets, retail fittings and commercial / furniture markets. Our customers are based throughout the UK, while several are located in other parts of Europe. Visit us at <http://contractsengineering.com/>